GOLDEN RE-TRIEVER RESCUE BUSINESS CONDUCT GUIDELINES

OUR MISSION:

Golden Re-Triever Rescue of New Jersey (GRRJ-NJ) is a non-profit organization staffed exclusively by un-paid, concerned Golden Retriever owners and breeders who have joined together for a common purpose – to find permanent loving homes for homeless, abandoned, neglected, abused and unwanted purebred Golden Retrievers.

PERSONAL CONDUCT

GRRJ-NJ's reputation for integrity and business ethics should never be taken for granted. To maintain that reputation, all of our volunteers must follow our Business Conduct Guidelines and exercise good judgment in their decisions and actions. Our organization's reputation and integrity are in their hands.

Likewise, we should respect the personal dignity, privacy and rights of each individual member. We need to work together as a unified team, remembering our sole focus is what is best for the dog.

Should the Board of Directors of GRRJ-NJ find that any member's conduct adversely affects the reputation of the organization as a whole, or any of its volunteers, that member shall be subject to disciplinary measures, including dismissal.

ENVIRONMENT

GRRJ-NJ maintains an environment that is free of discrimination or harassment based on race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, age, national origin or disability. GRRJ-NJ will not tolerate any sexual advances, actions or comments or racial or religious slurs, jokes or any other comments or conduct that creates, encourages or permits an offensive or intimidating environment. This applies to both group communications and one-on-one communications that contain rescue content. Other unacceptable behaviors include threats, violent behavior, use of obscenities and personal slander.

If you believe you are the subject of such conduct, you should notify the Board of Directors with substantiated proof so that your complaint may be investigated. Any volunteer who has been found to have engaged in such behavior will be subject to disciplinary action or dismissal from rescue.

INDIVIDUAL PRIVACY AND INTERNAL COMMUNICATIONS SYSTEMS

All volunteer membership listings are for internal-use only and should not be distributed to anyone outside of our organization. No volunteer's home address, telephone number or email address should be given to anyone without first obtaining their approval to release such information.

The URL and pass codes for our volunteer website, and any distribution lists on said website, are for internal use only, and should not be released to anyone outside of our organization.

Any volunteer who has been found to have violated the privacy of an individual or our organization will be subject to disciplinary action or dismissal from rescue.

PROPRIETARY INFORMATION

All information on GRRI-NJ adoption applications, adoption interviews, and intake profile documents and database contents are confidential. This information should not be divulged to anyone who does not have a direct need-to-know for this information.

All documentation must be kept in a secure location. This applies to both internal volunteer data as well as adoption files and data on the internet.

REQUESTS FOR INFORMATION AND CONTACT FROM THE PRESS

Any requests for information from the press/media should be directed to the Board of Directors. You should not initiate contact with any media without the authorization of the Board.

REPORTING AND RECORDING INFORMATION

You must report and record all information accurately and honestly. This includes information gathered from surrendering dog owners (intake), adoption applicants (interview process), and disclosure of information about an accepted intake dog to potential adopters (intake).

EXPENSE REIMBURSEMENT

Volunteers are entitled to reimbursement of approved expenses – but only if those approved expenses were incurred. Supporting documentation must be submitted to the Treasurer with an explanation for the expense. Any submission of false expenses is dishonest and disciplinary action may be taken, including dismissal.

COMPLIANCE WITH BUSINESS CONDUCT GUIDELINES

All active volunteers will be asked to review the Business Conduct Guidelines and certify that they have done so on an annual basis. This certification must be submitted at the time the Volunteer Application is submitted, and will be filed with said application. Refusal to sign the certification will result in the revocation of the active member status and involvement in the rescue process.
